

Protein-peptide binding monitored with fluorine NMR

Samantha Stadtmiller, 2017

Chemistry Department | The University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill

Field strength: 500 MHz

Why is this your favorite spectrum?

These spectra can be used for lineshape analysis to extract binding affinity and rate constants for a protein-peptide interaction.

