

Bromo (pyridine) cobaloxime

Kaitlynn Lopes, 2017

Chemistry Department | Boston University

Field strength: 500 MHz

Why is this your favorite spectrum?

This is my very first cobalt NMR taken as a part of my inorganic chemistry course at Boston University. It was a neat learning experience, and the NMR looks very clean. The peaks were easy to assign and the molecule is an interesting inorganic structure.