Gluten-free bread crumb at 7° day of shelf-life. Bi-dimensional T1_T2Corr

Paola Littardi, 2017

Department of Food and Drug | University of Parma

Field strength: 20 MHz

Why is this your favorite spectrum?

A friday evening, turning back home after a whole week of work on bi- dimensional excel T1_T2 maps, I was watching the blue sky. The clouds seemed to be the protons populations I was analysing all week long. Cool.

Comments: I woul like to thank my supervisor and colleagues (E. Vittadini, E.Carini, E. Curti).
