

15

ART

Temperature dependence of amide proton chemical shifts

Samantha Stadmiller, 2017

Chemistry Department | University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill

Field strength: 500 MHz

Why is this your favorite spectrum?

Amide proton temperature coefficients can tell you about the probability of a residue being hydrogen bonded.